

Rahul Gandhi to visit Sriperumbudur on Sunday for Rajiv Gandhi death anniversary

PATNA:CONGRESS DARPAN

Congress leader Rahul Gandhi will reach Sriperumbudur in Tamil Naduls Kanchipuram district on Sunday, on the occasion of former prime minister Rajiv Gandhi's 32nd death anniversary.

According to a communique from the state Congress, the former MP will visit the Rajiv Gandhi memorial and pay homage at 8 am on Sunday.

State Congress chief K S Alagiri said in a statement that Gandhi's visit to the memorial to his father after the party's thumping election victory over "communal forces" in neighbouring Karnataka was important. He said the party had won many of the constituencies that Gandhi's Bharat Jodo Yatra had covered. "The regime change that happened in Karnataka due to the Bharat Jodo Yatra carried out by our leader has set the stage for removing the fascist, anti-democratic government of (Prime Minister) Modi from power in the 2024 Lok Sabha polls," Alagiri said.

Alagiri urged Congress cadres to attend the Sriperumbudur event in large numbers.

Rajiv Gandhi, the sixth and youngest prime minister, was assassinated on May 21, 1991, by members of the Liberation Tigers of Tamil Eelam (LTTE) at Sriperumbudur during a poll campaign.
