Delivering on our promises is our top priority. Shri Rahul Gandhi's recent handover of house keys to Kaithangu Project beneficiaries in Mukkam, Thiruvambadi (Wayanad constituency) is a testament to our commitment to serving the nation.

A Wave Of Hope In Karnataka...

PATNA: CONGRESS DARPAN

On 20th March in Karnataka the Indian national congress leader Mr. Rahul Gandhi with Indian national congress president Shri Mallikarjun Kharge participated in "Yuva Dhvani" program and addressed the Karnatakals public.

Mr. Gandhi talked about the "Bharat Jodo Yatra" and the ideas behind the journey. He thanked and appreciated the public for joining the yatra with full energy and enthusiasm. The topic of the speech were unemployment, dissatisfaction of youths, problems of women and the forty percent government of Karnataka.

He attacked on the BJP government and reminded the public about the scams doing by the BJP leaders. He also said that in the region for any work the public have to give 40% commission to the contractor association. Further Mr. Gandhi spread the wave of happiness and hope by announcing the schemes and plans. For the youth who have passed the graduation would be given 3000 rupees per month for two years and the diploma students will get 1500 rupees per month for two years. The Indian national congress perceived the pain and problems of unemployment as it was informed that the present Karnataka government is unable to provide jobs to the youths. The youths who are the future of the country, losing hope of any further development of their future. Keeping the unemployment in the view, the Indian national congress will support the youths of the states financially in every aspect.

The congress party did not stop here and further announced that our women are facing countless problems every moment in their life. In order to make their life bright Mr. Gandhi promised to give 2000 rupees every month to every woman of the state under "Grihalaxami Scheme". Under "Annabhagya Scheme" every BPL family will get 10 kg food grains. And under "Grihajyoti Scheme" the congress party will give 2000 unit electricity free to the public. Mr. Gandhi also promised that the party will provide ten lakh jobs in the state within five years and 2.5 lakh government vacancies will be completed within one and half years. Mr. Gandhi attacked on the ruling party and spoke about Adani fraud. He put question mark on the BJP government that why every big project is being given to the Adani group. The Indian national congress leader persuaded the public that the congress party will change the face of the state and make the region brimmed with development and prosperity.

Congress President Shri Mallikarjun Kharge and Shri Rahul Gandhi receive a warm welcome upon their arrival at Belagavi Airport, Karnataka.

I Believe In Truth...

PATNA:CONGRESS DARPAN

On Monday addressing the people of Wayanad, the Indian national congress leader Mr. Rahul Gandhi said that he missed the people of Wayanad during the "Bharat Jodo Yatra". He shared his emotions and said that I feel that the people of the region has adopted me as their family member and returning their love he said that he also considers the people of the constituency as his own family members.

During the speech, Mr. Gandhi attacked Mr. Narendra Modi the present prime minister of the country and the RSS. He said that Mr. Modi and the RSS think themselves that only they are India. He said that Mr. Modi is a single person of India not the entire India. 1.4 billion people together makes India not a single person does it.

Reiterating that the democracy is losing its place, the institutions are under attack, the press, bureaucracy, judiciary, election commission, each and every institution is attacked and captured by the Modi Government and RSS.

Mr. Gandhi handed over the keys of house to the people of Wayanad which are provided to the widow and helpless women who were hurt by the flood and other sources, under "Kaithangu Project." He said that he doesn't feel political relationship with the people of the region but an emotional relationship.

Further he said "If I meet people from the Left front, I'll try and convince them that their ideology isn't the right one. And I am sure that they'll try to convince me also. I am happy to disagree with them. I still consider them as people of my family and I think this is and should be the spirit of our entire country."

Mr. Gandhi said that he believes in truth and will fight for truth. He is not scared of anybody.
