

Like Modi ji, media also works to divert your attention. You may have never heard of any poor farmer in the media, but you must have seen Modi ji, cricket and film stars. TV never shows you the pain of the country, because it is not yours but Adani's.

— Mr. Rahul Gandhi

Seva Dal workers should add the names of youth in the voter list: Dr. Sanjay

PATNA: CONGRESS DARPAN

State President of Bihar State Congress Seva Dal, Dr. Sanjay Yadav appealed to the Seva Dal workers to get involved in converting the increasing public support towards Congress in the upcoming Lok Sabha elections into victory and votes for the party. Describing Seva Dal as the backbone of Congress, Dr. Sanjay appealed to the workers of Seva Dal to run a campaign to include the names of new voters in the voter list in all the Lok Sabha constituencies. Along with the youth who have completed 18 years, names of those voters whose names have been left out in the voter list should be added. Run voter awareness campaign in Lok Sabha constituencies. BLOs and Assistant Electoral Registration Officers should cooperate in removing the names of voters who have died, in revising the voter list and in correcting errors in the voter list.

Special camps have been organized at all polling stations on 25th and 26th November. Claims and objections will be processed till 26th December. The final publication of the electoral list will take place on January 5. Dr. Sanjay said that Seva Dal workers should be active and cooperate with the citizens. Seva Dal workers have an important role in taking Rahul Gandhi's vision to the masses, exposing BJP's politics of hatred and strengthening democracy.

Fatima Bivi become the first woman judge of the Supreme Court of India

Fatima Bivi, who rose from Pathanamthitta district to become the first woman judge of the Supreme Court of India, has always been the pride of Kerala. Fatima Beavi achieved this feat at a time when gender inequality was rampant. Their incredible journey continues to inspire every generation. She played an active role in decision-making to bring about long-term changes in the Indian justice system, paving the way for women to pursue legal careers in the judiciary. Fatima Beavi has always been a role model for addressing gender imbalance. Nothing ends with the Supreme Court. Fatima Biwi was also the first governor from the Muslim community. She also served as the first chairperson of the Backward Classes Commission and the first member of the Central Human Rights Commission. Even though she has passed away, the memories of Fatima Beavi will remain an inspiration for generations to come. Respectfully bow.

KCR's days on the CM chair are numbered. He is unable to come to terms with the fact that his feudal, money-spinning enterprise is coming to an end. In his complete desperation, after all their attacks on the Congress and our senior leadership failed, he has attacked our beloved Indira Amma. Is he so deluded after living in his farm house 24x7 that he has forgotten the special place that Indira ji has in the hearts of every single Indian? Is he so enslaved to his BJP masters that he will attack a former PM who laid down her life for this country? KCR and his son are struggling to save their own seats. This election will be the beginning of the end of BRS.

The Congress is uniting the people of this country and coming together for the people of Palestine

It is a humanitarian stance to stand in solidarity with the people who are struggling for survival and to stand up for them. And the most spotless political activism. It is on the basis of that consciousness that today the Congress has gathered together on the shores of Kozhikode and joined hands for the Palestinian people. At a time when the central government has taken the most unfortunate stand on the issue of Palestine, the Congress is uniting the people of this country and coming together for the people of Palestine. It is clear from the stand of the Indian government that Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu are the same type of people. One advocates racism and the other Zionism. It was during the Modi administration that India changed its mind on the issue of Palestine. Modi supported Israel before America. India did not support the resolution to stop the war in the United Nations. Why is Modi so fond of Israel? Foreign policy is just a PR stunt for Modi and Netanyahu to win elections in their respective countries. But the policy of Congress then and now is the same. It was Gandhiji who formulated the Palestine policy and gave it to the Congress. Nehru, Indira and Rajiv Gandhi took it up. History has shown that Congress will take a strong stand no matter who or where they try to colonize. She described Indira as the most faithful sister and daughter of the Arab countries. At a time when no country in the world dared to send an ambassador, the country that dared to send an ambassador to Palestine was Congress's India. Meanwhile, there are some people here who think that even if the tiger dies, they should see the tears of Nathun. They see Palestine as a vote-getter. Congress will not forget to march before China and America. Palestine is a human rights issue. It should not be confined within the walls of caste and religion. The Congress Working Committee on the Palestine issue has passed a resolution in October. This is a resolution applicable to all Congressmen in India. Palestine is fighting for the right to the land of its birth. Congress will always be with the struggle of the Palestinian people. Palestine Solidarity called by KPCC was inaugurated by Maharali 'Muhammad Abdurrahman Sahib Nagari' (Kozhikode Kadapuram). KPCC President K. Sudhakaran MP, Leader of Opposition VD Satheesan, Muslim League State President Panakkad Syed Sadiq Ali Shihab Thangal, Ramesh Chennithala, K. Muralidharan MP, Dr. Shashi Tharoor MP, AICC General Secretary Tariq Anwar, Samasta President Syed Jafri Muthukoya Thangal, Kerala Muslim Jama Aath State General Secretary Syed Khalil Bukhari Thangal, KNM State President TP Abdullahkoya Madani, Opposition Deputy Leader P. K Kunhalikutty, UDF convener MM Hassan, MPs ET Muhammad Basheer, MP Abdus Samad Samadani, representatives of various community-organizations etc. participated.
