

KEY ARCHITECTS OF MODERN INDIA WERE ALL NRIS: RAHUL GANDHI

PATNA: CONGRESS DARPAN

New York: Addressing the Indian Diaspora in New York on Monday, Congress leader Rahul Gandhi claimed that the key architects of contemporary India were all Non—Resident Indians (NRIs) who kept an open mind about the outside world.

The Congress leader, who is on the last legs of his ongoing three—city tour of the US, said all prominent leaders associated with the country's freedom struggle, including Mahatma Gandhi, BR Ambedkar, Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, Jawaharlal Nehru, and Subhash Chandra Bose, were NRIs who kept an open mind about the outside world.

"The central architect of modern India, Mahatma Gandhi, was an NRI. The foundation for India's freedom movement was laid in South Africa...Nehru, BR Ambedkar, Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, Subhash Chandra Bose, all were NRIs and had an open mind about the outside world," he said.

His remark assumes significance as the BJP, which holds the reins of administration at the Centre, has often accused him of sullyng India's image on foreign soil.

The saffron party has also alleged a larger global narrative to defame India.

Continuing with his offensive against the saffron party, the Congress leader said the country faces a battle between two ideologies — one espoused by the Congress and the other by the BJP and its ideological parent, the Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh (RSS).

"There is a fight between two ideologies in India — one that we (Congress) represent and other that is espoused by the BJP and the RSS," the Congress leader claimed.

Further, he added that the principles and ideology that the Congress holds dear are the same as that of the Father of the Nation, Mahatma Gandhi.

He claimed that the ideas espoused and propagated by the BJP and RSS were that of Nathuram Godse, a rightwing leader who assassinated Mahatma Gandhi.

MISINFORMATION ABOUT HISTORY IS BEING SPREAD THROUGH SAVARKAR MOVIE : ANAM SULTAN

PATNA:CONGRESS DARPAN

Representative of Bihar Congress and youth leader of Congress, Anam Sultan Khan has attacked the makers of Randeep Hooda's starrer Savarkar movie, he said that the teaser of this movie has given misleading information which is completely opposite to the truth of history, In the teaser of this movie It has been said that Gandhiji was not bad, but if he had not stuck to non—violent thinking, then our country would have become independent 35 years ago. But the truth is that our country got independence in 1947, so 35 years before i.e.

1912 and Mahatma Gandhi came to India in 1915 and he started his first Satyagraha in Champaran, Bihar in 1917, according to the truth Mahatma Gandhi didn't come to India 35 years ago If Gandhi was not in India so there was no non—violent thinking of Gandhi, then who stopped Savarkar to get freedom 35 years ago, he would have taken it! Had Mahatma Gandhi also come to India, he would have come to a Independent country.

He further questioned the producers that according to this film, Savarkar had encouraged Bhagat Singh, Subhash Chandra Bose and Khudi Ram Bose, then who had encouraged Nathuram Godse and when freedom fighters like Bhagat Singh were hanged for the country, Will the producer tell in his film that for what Savarkar was taking Rs.60 per month pension after apologizing to the British in 1924.

ON HIS BIRTH ANNIVERSARY, WE PAY HOMAGE TO THE FREEDOM FIGHTER AND THE FIRST CM OF ASSAM, GOPINATH BORDOLOI. CONFERRED WITH THE TITLE 'LOKAPRIYA' FOR HIS UNWAVERING DEDICATION TOWARDS THE PEOPLE OF ASSAM, THE BHARAT RATNA AWARDEE LEFT A LEGACY THAT CONTINUES TO INSPIRE GENERATIONS.
